

We're here for you

- To listen in a safe setting
- To provide information & educate—groups, persons
- To refer women, children, families & churches to resources that can help them deal with domestic violence
- To express God's care and love
- To offer hope and a future
- To be a resource of kindness and wisdom
- To help make change happen

"I am convinced that nothing can separate us from God's love that is revealed in Christ Jesus... not even the powers of hell can keep God's love away."

Healing A Woman's Soul Ministry

Because....

Because of who you are to God, you have enormous value. You may not think you really matter to anyone. But you do. To God, to me, and to our team. Healing A Woman's Soul Ministry is dedicated to you. My name is Anne. I know from personal experience how hard life can be.

And I know how good it can get. My passion is to help you know your value and be able to live it. Some good people and a great God are with me...and with you.

Resources

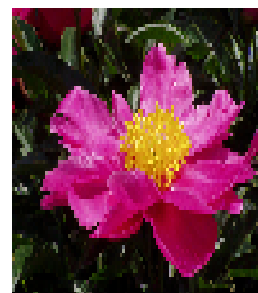

This is a new ministry to women and children . Every Monday I'll be in Cocksackie at Christ Church to meet privately, talk on the phone, host some groups, and listen to you. You can call for an appointment or just come by between 9am and 12:30. During the week I am available by phone at the numbers on the cover.

Support

We will be offering group and individual support in dealing with domestic violence, substance abuse recovery, eating disorders and abuse trauma from a Christian perspective.

Let me know if you are interested in joining me, for conversation or group work. I'm a minister, so I get it about confidentiality. I'm a lawyer too, so I know how the law can protect women. As a woman, I know what a blessing we can be to each other in good times and bad. As a Christian I know what a privilege it is to bring God's love to others. Some churches that care about you have come alongside me. Because of who you are.

I hope to hear from you soon.
